CHRISTINA'S IMMACULATE DECEPTION

BY JIM GALLAGHER.

● THE Sunday World today reveals the shocking financial secret behind 'Holy Woman' Christina Gallagher's palatial €4 million home.

● The owner of her sprawling mansion in Abington, north Dublin, is the top fundraiser for her controversial House of Prayer organisation, John Rooney.

● And we have discovered that hundreds of people who donated cash to the House were told to sign their cheques directly to Rooney.

● Now former followers of Gallagher, who claims to have received messages from the Virgin Mary, are demanding to know if their cash was used to buy the luxury pad.

● Our revelations about the self-proclaimed visionary have shocked the country and last week Gallagher's disciple, Fr Gerard McGinnity, described us as "the agents of the devil."

VIPER SHOT DEAD

MURDERED: Martin 'The Viper' Foley died in a hail of bullets yesterday afternoon

BULLET HOLES: The Viper's shattered Audi

Hit FOUR times but Foley fingers his killer before dying

LUCK ran out for ruthless gangster Martin 'the Viper' Foley yesterday when he was gunned down at 3.08pm on a Dublin suburban street.

The notorious criminal had cheated death on three previous occasions and had already 11 bullets in his body when he was shot FOUR times by a gunman as he left his local gym in his car.

The Viper lost control of his high-powered Audi and crashed into a nearby garden when the killer opened fire, fatally wounding him, through the windscreen.

It is understood that the hitman fired up to twelve rounds with an automatic weapon before escaping in a getaway car, which was later found abandoned.

Last night the Sunday World learned that the Viper named his killer to cops as he was rushed to St James's Hospital, before losing his fight for life late last night.
